

The 8th Saunders Lakeland

MOUNTAIN MARATHON

RESULTS 1985

PLEASE KEEP THE COUNTRYSIDE TIDY

SOME NOTES FROM KEN LEDWARD — EVENT ORGANISER

The 8th. Saunders Lakeland Mountain Marathon will be remembered most for the contrast with the weather of the 1984 event. That so many competitors successfully completed their routes in the mist and continuous rain of day 1 reflects highly on their overall abilities.

While competitors were battling on the fell, the mid-camp team was having no small problem erecting the marquees at Longsleddale, some of them now consider themselves well qualified as grave-diggers ! !

The event was not without its problems. One of the two marshalls at checkpoint 17 was taken ill and had to be escorted off the fell by her companion who forgot to leave the post and punch in the sheepfold. The marshall for checkpoint 3 elected to travel-in via the ridge and was unable to locate the checkpoint marker. The marshall for checkpoint 9, misplaced the punch intended for Old Martindale Church and was late getting to his position. One competitor fell between checkpoint 1 and Ruthwaite Lodge and was evacuated from the fell by Patterdale Mountain Rescue Team. It is worth noting that within minutes of the latter mishap, our own competitors were on the scene and instigated the necessary first aid and call-out.

There were however some really bright moments. The results list gives class winners, among these: A mixed team 4th overall in the Scafell Class, a 50 plus super vet. in the team finishing 7th — also in Scafell. A mixed team was also overall 4th in Bowfell and had fastest leg on a difficult terrain section. First ladies in Bowfell were 18th overall. Other comparisons can be made from the excellent lapse times recording done by members of the Backpackers Club, in one case a team finishing in late 40's had a third fastest time on one section of their route. I have to date received four letters of complaint — I expected many more. We start planning this event at the turn of the year and next years competition area is already set. After so many, many hours of planning and fell recces, no one can be more annoyed at a failure in the system than those of us on the organising side. The people who volunteer to assist in the event do it cheerfully and I am most grateful for their efforts. When, as this year, some discover that they have not managed to play their full part, it is they who are the first to criticise and their hurt is both deep and genuine. I accept the full responsibility for the event — even when it has its successes, I also know the feeling of making colossal boops! Two of the letters which I have received come from folk who are quite obviously above making errors. They claim that the whole event was a total shambles! Did we not have a good assembly camp-site? A good hall for our reunion? Excellent refreshments? etc., etc., Did not the majority in Bowfell who were unable to find the checkpoint punch continue to the next, knowing that the mid-camp was as near as the main venue? There will be many, of course, who found the day difficult and their preparations insufficient, but that occurs in all events of this type. I can recall a Karrimor event when the checkpoint on an Elite Course wasn't in place. A Lake District Mountain Trail when the official was on the wrong peak. A Borrowdale Race when officials couldn't locate Bessyboot. The errors which can be made by organisers and their helpers are abundantly clear for all to see — not so the clangers that competitors drop.

Four years ago, after having several of the checkpoint punches stolen, we resorted to placing a marker, having the official locate this marker and then set up the punch/tent etc., Next year, we will place the punch again and also have the official take up his place for time recording.

To those of you who were in any way inconvenienced, my apologies. To you all, I extend a warm welcome to join us again in 1986. And finally, to our sponsors

Joan and Bob Saunders, my thanks for the help and support you give to us at the organising end. Your efforts and those of your team take care of a lot of the time consuming jobs which are so essential to an event of this nature. We look forward to seeing you on the evening of Friday 11th July 1986.

Sincerely,
KEN LEDWARD

A "NOVEL" NOTION

It is extremely rare for camping in any shape or form to be featured in novels. And for specific names and events to be mentioned is simply quite unheard of — until now, that is. Modesty Blaise, the ageless heroine of cartoon serials by Peter O'Donnell and featured in the London Standard for more than twenty years and the subject of eleven full length novels, usually takes time off to relax after each successful 'caper'. In her latest adventure "Dead Mans Handle", Modesty and her faithful sidekick Willy Garvin, spend the last chapter taking part in the Saunders Lakeland Mountain Marathon, and in a Robert Saunders 'JETPACK' tent, no less. And they even managed to better many by completing the course.

Who knows? Maybe this excursion of camping into fiction will brush off on other authors and we'll have the likes of Jeffrey Archer writing about power struggles in the corridors of the Camping and Caravanning Club or Alistair MacLean writing about drug syndicates operating out of secluded corners of the Pennine Way!
